

SHOT AT RIOTERS.

Foreman Tahera Attacked by Striking Grain-Shovelers.

They Demanded Pay for an Hour Lost on Saturday.

Found New Men in Their Places When They Went to Work.

The refusal of Supt. Phalen, of grain elevator A at the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad yards, Sixtieth street and North River, to pay a number of men for one hour's time lost Saturday morning, was the cause of a small riot there this morning.

Pistol shots were fired, and the confusion which followed lasted fully an hour.

Seven o'clock is the usual hour for shoveling work, and the twenty-seven "shovelers" employed in the grain elevator were on hand at that time on Saturday morning. A boat-load of grain expected did not, however, arrive until 8 o'clock, and the men were forced to remain idle that length of time. They are all paid at the rate of 10 cents per hour for every hour actually worked.

When the grain did arrive at the yards, Foreman Tahera ordered the men to go to work, but one of the twenty-seven men refused to obey unless promised payment for the lost hour. The foreman refused to do this, and the situation grew more serious.

The men, who are mostly Bohemians, went on strike, and from the several acres of men who call daily looking for employment, a new gang was engaged, and work was started up again at 9 o'clock.

The discharged or striking employees, who are mostly Bohemians, were on hand at 7 o'clock this morning, prepared to go to work as usual. When they saw new men in their place, they retired and held a consultation.

Half an hour later the foreman was approached by two of the men named Andrew Laut and Peter Starke. He was on the bridge at the time over the tracks connecting the elevator with the office.

Without any warning, he says, the men sprang upon him, and one of them hit him in the face. He was knocked down, but managed to reach his feet again, and ran into a crowd of his office, where he procured a pistol.

By that time a crowd had gathered. Scores of unemployed men who were in the vicinity hurried forward. The other men stopped work, and as the situation increased, Tahera appeared with the pistol. He fired one shot in the air, but as another shot at Starke, which missed him. There was no occasion to fire again, as the crowd broke up and scattered.

Policeman Walters, of the West Sixty-eighth street station, was on duty in front of the building on the Fifty-ninth street side. Hearing the shots he rushed forward, and informed him that a riot had been committed. Other employees had rushed to the telephone and sent word to Police Headquarters that a riot was in progress.

The officials in the Mulberry street building, including the Police Commissioner, and several officers hurried to the scene.

They got there just in time to see Patrolman Walters coming out with his revolver. He was followed by a crowd of men, and the men charged him with assault. Laut and Starke were arrested.

rested on the foreman's complaint charged with disorderly conduct. All were taken to the Yorkville Court and held for examination.

One hour after the occurrence, business in the grain elevator was at a standstill. There was no sign of any trouble.

RIVER THIEVES ESCAPE.

Two Brooklyn Policemen Give Them a Lively Chase.

Policemen Stephenson and Ray, of the Atlantic Dock squad, Brooklyn, were led by a lively chase by river thieves early this morning. The officers first saw the thieves in the air in an attempt to frighten the gang into surrendering, but the thieves escaped.

Shortly after midnight the officers saw a small boat shoot out from alongside the large Lillian, lying at the foot of Verma street, Commercial wharf. The boat was loaded and was manned by two men. The policemen ordered the men to stop, but they took their boat out through the gap and escaped into the river.

Stephenson and Ray found that the thieves had been in shore and stolen nine bags containing an amount of loot of $1,000. The thieves escaped into the river, and the policemen followed them until they were out of sight.

PICKPOCKET AT TWELVE.

Mary Fitzsimmons Sent to the Catholic Protective Till of Age.

Mary Fitzsimmons, twelve years old, of 47 West Fifty-fourth street, who a year ago was caught picking pockets in the Central Park, is once more under arrest, charged with having stolen a coat of several women in Central Park yesterday.

Detective Savage, of the police, in an attempt to catch the girl, took her to the Central Park, where she was caught. She was taken to the Yorkville Court, and held for examination.

After watching her for a few minutes he saw her pick up a woman's coat. She was caught, and the woman was taken to the Yorkville Court, and held for examination.

ACCUSED OF KICKING A BOY.

Alleged Brutal Outrage by a Brooklyn Policeman.

Edie Ryan, the fifteen-year-old son of Chief Clerk Edward Ryan, of the Brooklyn Excise Board, is the victim of what his father declares is a brutal police outrage.

Edie and a friend named Freddy Meyer one out of a party store at Fourth avenue, near St. Mark's Place, last evening and met Policeman Finley, of the Fourth Precinct, who told them to move on.

The boys answered back and Finley arrested them both, and it is said, kicked young Ryan brutally. Mr. Ryan had to bail the boys out.

The only excuse Finley could give for arresting the boys in Justice Tighes' court this morning was that he thought they belonged to a gang which infested that neighborhood. Examination was set down for Dec. 5.

NICE TOWN IS FLATBUSH.

Highwaymen Beat Knight After He Complained to the Police.

Peter Seward, twenty-three, and William Dixon, twenty-two, of Vernon avenue, Flatbush, were arrested in Flatbush this morning on a charge of assault and attempted robbery.

The two men met Eugene Knight on Avenue A, and he complained to the police. They were arrested, and the police believe these men are responsible for them.

There have been a number of similar assaults lately, and the police believe these men are responsible for them.

RAID ON COUNTERFEITERS.

Gang of Six Men Captured in Camden.

Police Forced Their Way Through Barred Doors.

Camden, N. J., Nov. 27.—A gang of six counterfeiters were captured early this morning in a house at the corner of Eighth and Warner streets, in the lower part of the city.

Of late many counterfeit half dollars have been circulated through the city. The police obtained a clue to the headquarters of the counterfeiters from a person known as David Taylor.

When the police went to raid the place this morning the lights on the inside were suddenly extinguished and the doors were found to be barred.

It took some time to force an entrance into the building and the counterfeiters made a desperate resistance. They would not surrender until the policemen drew their revolvers.

A woman, who was keeping house for the gang, attempted to jump out of a second-story window, when she was seized by Det. Neutze.

The policemen, with their paraphernalia, were taken to Police Headquarters, where they gave their names as Frederick Short, Frank Wilson, William Addison, David Taylor and Clara Taylor. They were all committed without bail to await trial in the United States Court.

IT WAS AN ITALIAN FEUD.

Cardenelli's Three Victims Badly Cut and One May Die.

Louis Cardenelli lies at St. Vincent's Hospital with a stab wound under the heart and one in the stomach. Last night a Coroner took Louis' autopsical statement, and the doctors say his recovery is doubtful.

Louis' uncle, Saratini, is also at St. Vincent's Hospital. He has two stab wounds in the leg and one on the hip. Mary Cardenelli, the wife of Louis, was seriously cut in the head.

Joseph Cardenelli, who is believed to have cut the other three, was a prisoner at a Hudson Market Court today. He also had his head wrapped in a bandage. He had been cut twice.

Mary Cardenelli explained to Judge Hogan that the original trouble had been over $24, which had been lost. The whole family took part in the melee.

Justice Hogan held Cardenelli to await the result of his enemy's injuries.

AGAIN THE STILETTO.

Fasquale Giudice Held for Stabbing John Viscetto.

Fasquale Giudice, of 35 East One Hundred and Fifth street, was a prisoner in the Harlem Police Court this morning.

Giudice and a fellow-countryman, named John Viscetto, of 412 East One Hundred and Fifth street, had a quarrel last night, and the latter was stabbed in the back. The wound is not serious.

Giudice was captured by Patrolman Tynan, of the East One Hundred and Fourth street station, and Justice Viscetto held Giudice in $200 bail for trial.

FITZGERALD AFTER WARRANTS.

He is the Policeman Who Fractured Mrs. Ryan's Skull.

William Fitzgerald, the policeman of the Eleventh Precinct who cracked the skull of Mrs. Margaret Ryan, of 57 Huntington street, Brooklyn, with the butt of his revolver on Nov. 22, was in the Butler Street Police Court this morning. He secured warrants for the arrest of John Burritt and Thomas Ryan.

Fitzgerald went into Ryan's house on Nov. 22 to arrest Burritt. Fitzgerald says Burritt hit him in the head with a stone, and that Ryan struck him with a bar of iron.

It was during this altercation that Fitzgerald says Mrs. Ryan interfered, and to defend himself he struck her.

CLUBBERS MUST ANSWER.

Dore's Assaults Called Before Inspector McAvoy To-Day.

Policemen Thomas Brunswick and John McInley No. 2, of the West Forty-seventh street station, will have to stand trial for brutally assaulting Robert Dore, of 48 West Fifty-third street, last Friday evening.

Inspector McAvoy had both officers before him at Police Headquarters this morning, and after listening to Dore's story ordered a complaint taken against the policemen.

The story of the assault was published exclusively in "The Evening World" last Saturday. Dore was in a saloon at the southeast corner of Tenth avenue and Fifty-sixth street on the evening in question. An old man in the place had refused to pay for drinks he had called for, and Dore remonstrated with him.

Policemen Brunswick and McInley were in the saloon drinking. Dore says, without provocation, put him out of the place. Brunswick struck him, Dore returned to get Brunswick's number, when he was clubbed and kicked by both policemen.

Dore's eyes were blackened and his head bruised.

He complained of the treatment at the station-house and was told to see Inspector McAvoy.

FOUND NO POLICY THERE.

Police Explore Meyer's Cigar Shop, 98 Stockholm Street.

Acting-Capt. John A. Sutton, of the Cedar Street Police Station, Brooklyn, this morning made a special report to Supt. Campbell, concerning the policy denials in "The Evening World" Saturday.

Although two reporters for "The Evening World" found the place wide open, and doing a rushing business, and themselves entered and bought "cigs" from the alleged proprietor, the police did not credit the story. They declare that after making repeated efforts, they have been unable to secure evidence which would warrant them in making an arrest.

After reading Acting-Capt. Sutton's report this morning, Supt. Campbell said to an "Evening World" reporter: "You may say what you like, but I will instruct my men to follow up this case, and use every means to crush out such places."

IDENTIFIES THE BODY.

Mrs. McMahon Claims the Headless and Armless Corpse.

Lena McMahon, of 69 West Forty-seventh street, called at the Morgue today and identified the armless and headless body, found floating in the East River on Friday morning, as that of her husband, Edward, aged forty-seven, who has been missing from his home since Sept. 15. He was then intoxicated.

Mrs. McMahon identified the body by the shoe and stocking upon the left foot, and which were the only articles of clothing on the corpse.

The woman was unable to explain what peculiar feature there was about the shoe which enabled her to identify it, and her recognition was regarded with suspicion.

It seems that she holds a life insurance policy on her husband for $10, and ever since he disappeared she has been haunting the Morgue.

TO BRAZIL UNDER U. S. FLAG.

Mendonça's Plan to Get the Destroyer Safely to Rio Janeiro.

Once Inside the Harbor She May Attack the Aquidaban.

It was announced this morning that the Brazilian submarine gun vessel Destroyer, which is expected to leave for Southern waters the latter part of this week, had registered as an American vessel belonging to the Erlanson heirs.

Her gross tonnage was given as 125 and net tonnage as 61.

This fact, in addition to the statement of a member of the firm of Flint & Co. that Destroyer will probably fly the American flag until she reaches Brazil, is taken to indicate that the submarine gun vessel will have Uncle Sam's protection until safely landed in a Brazilian port.

This can easily be secured, for Destroyer still belongs to the Erlanson heirs, and will not be purchased by Brazil until she does effective work. As Destroyer goes out in tow she could easily be sunk by a shot from one of Mello's merchant vessels, but of course with the American flag flying she will not be molested.

The plan of Minister Mendonça is said to be to have Destroyer raise the Brazilian flag in the harbor of Rio Janeiro, and then try her submarine gun on Aquidaban. Before substituting the flag of Brazil for the Stars and Stripes it would be necessary for Pelotó's Government to purchase the Destroyer, but this could be done for the nominal price to be paid as an option.

Traveling the plan is carried out naval men expect a revelation of Rio Janeiro at sea. An officer said this morning that Destroyer will probably move as quietly as the monitor of Hampton Roads, and that she may be just as much a surprise to the formidable Aquidaban as was Erlanson's first invention to the Merrimack.

Mechanics this morning were busy on the Destroyer at Erie Basin arranging a bed for a gun to be placed on the forward deck.

The present plans of Flint & Co. are to send the Yarrow torpedo-boat to meet aboard the tow that takes of Destroyer. It is expected that the torpedo-boat, which is now at the Morgan Iron Works, will be finished to-morrow.

WILL REORGANIZE THE G. O. P.

Committee Will Consider the Philadelphia Plan.

The Sub-Committee on Investigation and Reorganization of the Republican Party will begin work to-night.

The Committee on Reorganization will meet at the Republican Club, 430 Fifth avenue. They will consider further the advisability of recommending the Philadelphia plan—organization by election districts, the leaders of which are directly responsible to the Chairman of the County Committee. The plan does away with Assembly District leaders.

The Investigating Committee will dispose of the accused leaders in blocks of ten. They will begin by giving hearings to the leaders of the first ten districts.

A Tammany Society Sold Out.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., Nov. 27.—(Special) Con. Prouty this morning sold at auction the furniture and belongings of the Tammany Society, which had been taken from Long Island City on a judgment for $150 for rent and $250 for carpet. Frank Prouty is the owner of the building. The society went to pieces after election and refused to pay the rent of the club rooms which are located on Avenue Street.
